Dear Parents

JEANS FOR GENES APPEAL

We are pleased to say we raised a total of £146.35 towards this appeal. Thank you for your support.

ECO CLUB

After school on Tuesday, the Eco Club went around the school making notes on where energy could be saved. We discussed reasons for appliances being switched on, and how most energy that was being used was necessary for the people who were working at that time. We did come up with some suggestions which have been summarised and circulated to the staff. We hope that these suggestions will help the school continue to be eco-friendly!

MORE NVQ SUCCESS FOR TEACHING ASSISTANTS

We are pleased to report that Diana Woodhouse and Karen Jeffrey, two of our Teaching Assistants working in Key Stage 2, have successfully completed their NVQ3 qualifications. Their achievement will be recognised this evening at a special Award Ceremony arranged by Devon Education Services. Annette Emerson, who qualified earlier in the year, will also receive an award.

CBEEBIES

Three of our children from Key Stage 1 will feature on the 'Green Balloon Club' to be transmitted on Friday 7th November at 4.00pm on the CBeebies Channel, repeated on Sunday 9th November at 9.00am and 3.00pm. We took part in some filming for this programme earlier in the year down on the Marshes.

SEATON BANNER CALENDARS

The Seaton Visitor Centre Trust has received a supply of 2009 calendars, A4 size, using all the Seaton Banner designs. They will be available to purchase at the school Christmas Bazaar (Thursday 27th November) at a cost of £4.99 each. If you wish to order one in advance, please call Heather Sanham on 01297 24557 or email her: marrick@sky.com. There is a sample copy in the school office.

NON-PUPIL DAY

A reminder that Friday 28th November 2008 is a non-pupil day. Also, the last day of term is Friday 19th December and we will finish at 1.00pm.

PTA NEWS from Claire Ross

Thank you to everyone who brought in their Bag2School donations just before half term. We had 160 large bags to hand over, so we are hoping for a handsome cheque soon!

In the meantime, the Christmas Bazaar on Thursday 27th November from 6.00pm – 7.30pm is rapidly approaching. Following on from the success of the Summer Fete, we are hoping to sell mulled wine and BBQ food. We are again asking parents of children in Years 4 – 6 to help run the stalls for an hour – please see separate slip as appropriate. Donations of tombola and raffle prizes are requested, as are donations of good quality secondhand toys and books (but no bric-a-brac).

All committee members: please note there will be a committee meeting on Wednesday 12th November at 3.30pm.

Claire Ross

Yours sincerely
