NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents

At yesterday's meeting I was able to describe the changing pattern regarding admissions and the number on roll across the school and I was able to give some good news about organisation of the school from September 2009 – July 2010. The headlines of this meeting were:-

Key Stage 1 will be organised into the following classes in September 2009:

Year 1 + 2:	26 children	-	Miss Hurd
Year 1 + 2:	26 children	-	Miss Richmond
Year 1 + 2:	26 children	-	Miss Sealy
Year 1:	12 children	-	Miss Booker
Reception:	20 children	-	Miss Bull

In January, some of the Reception children will move into the Year 1 class from the Reception class, and 18 new children will join the Reception class. Hopefully this will balance the class sizes.

Key Stage 2a will have two Year 3 classes and two Year 4 classes:

Year 3:	20 children	-	Mrs Powell
Year 3:	20 children	-	Miss Teague / other teacher
Year 4:	23 children	-	Mr Lewis
Year 4:	23 children	-	Mrs White

Key Stage 2b will have two Year 5 classes and two Year 6 classes:

Year 5:	30 children	-	Mrs Hopkinson
Year 5:	30 children	-	Miss Nelson
Year 6:	29 children	-	Ms McFarlane
Year 6:	29 children	-	Mr Dike

Children will be allocated to new classes in the next few weeks and will be told at the time we send out our end of year reports – this will be on 10th July 2009.

Overall the day was great! We got to meet and compete against all the other schools! The rain held back but the sun didn't shine. There were many rounds and obstacles to complete. We brought back the victory of winning and we all enjoyed the day. It was great fun! - by Rhian

PTA NEWS from Claire Ross

Summer Fete, Saturday 11th July: Details of the summer fete are now becoming clear and you are invited to enter the “It’s a Knock-out” competition. Teams of four (two adults and two under 16 children) can enter. The competition will consist of three ‘silly’ relay races, one of which will include water so teams should be prepared to get a bit wet on the day! Entry is £5.00 per team. Please send your entries to the school office, including the names of the four members, plus a team name!

Other attractions will be: BBQ, Beer Tent, Sidmouth Town Band, Seaton School’s Got Talent, Inflatable Obstacle Course, Skittles, KS1 Fancy Dress Parade, Craft Stalls, Year 6 Games, Cake Stall.

If you can donate secondhand books or toys in good condition, that would be great. They can be left at the school office for the PTA to collect.

Yours sincerely
